“Let your light so shine before people, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.” (Mt 5:16)

The 2013 Autumn Conference is designed to give us a fresh insight into the unique way Jesus exercised compassion in his ministry. During this conference we will learn how to respond more fully to Jesus’ call to receive his compassion and to employ it in our own lives and ministries.

Sessions this weekend will include:

- Compassion in the life of Jesus and the mission of the Church;
- Receiving the compassion of Christ;
- Ministry for healing in the Power of the Holy Spirit;
- Exercising compassion in ministry: using the charisms.

This weekend will include ample times of ministry, Holy Mass, Adoration and inspirational praise and worship.

Some Testimonies

I have had a problem with my hips since I was born. This has caused me pain when I walk. After prayer I no longer experienced any pain.

"Excellent teaching and inspirational talks given by talented and gifted speakers; edifying, encouraging and uplifting"

After an injury to my right ankle I could not run or walk because of the pain. After prayer I was able to walk free of pain.

“Praise & Worship and Adoration really allowed me to engage with the Lord. I was moved to tears six times on Saturday and was able to pour out my heart to the Lord which was very healing for me.”

Speakers of the Conference

Chris Thomas is a priest of the Liverpool Archdiocese. He has been a full-time youth chaplain, a University chaplain, a Parish Priest and is now the director of the Irenaeus Project. The Project is an attempt to highlight the whole area of spirituality for everyone. He is vice chair of the National Service Team for Charismatic Renewal, part of the Harvesters Men’s steering group and a member of the Good News editorial committee. He has spoken all over the British Isles as well as Ireland and mainland Europe.

Maria Rodrigues-Toth hosts her own daily show on Premier Radio, one of the few national Christian radio stations in the UK. She coordinates the annual ‘Woman-to-Woman’ conference in London, which has had over 1,000 women of all ages attending. She is a joyful and passionate speaker committed to see the New Pentecost, promoted by recent Popes, promoted in the Church today.

Duncan Mitchell has been a member of the community for over 10 years. After graduating with a degree in Law, Duncan qualified as a social worker and for a number of years specialised in work with drug and alcohol users. He has an MA in Biblical Studies and is the author of the popular Living Word Courses. Duncan is a gifted teacher and speaks regularly at Community led events.
