Cor et Lumen Christi Spring Conference "Pentecost is for Living"

9th - 11th March 2012
Wigton, Cumbria

Charles and Sue Whitehead and Andrew Fava

Website: www.coretlumenchristi.org

Charity Number: 1049357

“And I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live...” Ezekiel 37:14

On the day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit was poured out in power on all gathered in the upper room. That day the Church was born, 3000 were added to their number, people were cut to the heart convinced of the truths of the Gospel and equipped with the power to live radically for God. Today the same Holy Spirit is powerfully active among His people in what Pope Benedict XVI has called “a Pentecostal season in the Church”.

In this conference we will look at what Pentecost means in the Church today, what God is doing around the world and how to collaborate with Him in a deeper way so as to fulfill our personal vocation in the full power of Pentecost.

Conference sessions include:

- Inspirational teaching and preaching
- Ministry in the power of the Holy Spirit
- Prayer for healing
- Adoration
- Praise and Worship
- Holy Mass.

There is also time in the program for fellowship.

Cor et Lumen Christi is a Catholic community. It has two centres in Chertsey, Surrey and Wigton, Cumbria. The community ministers in all five continents and to tens of thousands of people every year. It is recognised within the Church as a Private Association of the Faithful.

“And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit” Acts 2:4
