A New Springtime in the Church

“God is preparing a great springtime for Christianity, and we can already see its first signs.”

(John Paul II, `Redemptoris Missio, 86)

In the growing expectancy of a new season of grace in the Christian world, recent Popes have been calling us to recognise we are entering a new springtime in the Church and to pray for a new Pentecost. In this exciting time, how can we make ourselves ready to make the most of this opportunity and share in it's blessings. This conference will provide us with inspiring and in depth teaching to empower and equip us to play our part in this new springtime in the Church.

The conference will also include:

Extended times of praise and worship silent adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, opportunities for confession, prayer ministry, fellowship, and Holy Mass.

The Speakers

Aneel Aranha is the founder and director of Holy Spirit Interactive (HSI), a Catholic lay apostolate recognized as an Association of Faith and Outreach by Bishop Paul Hinder, the Apostolic Vicar of Southern Arabia. Once a prolific atheist he had a powerful encounter with Christ and is now a passionate evangelist, preacher and author. Coming from Dubai, Aneel's powerful ministry has empowered and encouraged Catholics all over the world to live a fresh and vibrant faith, equipping them in the power of the Spirit.

Andrew Fava is a founding member of the Cor et Lumen Christi Community and a regular speaker in the Catholic Renewal. Andrew is the prior of St Cuthbert's community house and conference centre, and the leader of the community in the North. He is a gifted and inspiring preacher and teacher with a real heart for revival and renewal in the Church today. He is married to Cathy and they have four boys.

Cor et Lumen Christi is a member of the Catholic Fraternity of Charismatic Covent Communities and as such has Papal recognition.
