St Cuthbert's The Old Convent, Wigton, CA7 9HU

DONATION ONLY EVENT
(after £10 registration fee)

The Harvest is Rich...

“Ask the Lord of the harvest, to send labourers into his fields.” - Matthew 9:38

“We cannot keep to ourselves the words of eternal life given to us in our encounter with Jesus Christ: they are meant for everyone, for every man and woman. ... It is our responsibility to pass on what, by God’s grace, we ourselves have received.”

- Pope Benedict XVI, Verbum Domini, 2010

The world around us is crying out for meaning and insight for life. The Popes of the past century have consistently called us to be alert to a new season of grace for evangelisation and renewal in the Church. Paul VI spoke of a privileged moment of the Holy Spirit. Many of us are experiencing this tide of grace in our mission and life. How do we catch this wave and respond to the call, confidently living out a life of witness in order to reach those around us with the with the life of Jesus?

This encouraging and affirming weekend will equip us to be the light that we are called to be, to be witnesses of grace, love and joy and to effectively bring the joy of the Gospel to those with whom we share our lives.

Niklas Carlsson has been a member of the Cor et Lumen Christi Community for over 15 years. With a background in science (MSc Engineering), during his time in the community he has acquired an MA in Pastoral and Educational Studies because of his heart for teaching the Faith. As well as authoring the Called to Glory series of conferences, Niklas has been responsible for leading the very successful Catholic Miracle Rally, and is a popular speaker at many of our other events.

Andrew Fava is a founding member of the Cor et Lumen Christi Community and a regular speaker in the Catholic Renewal. Andrew is the leader of the community in the North. He is a gifted and inspiring preacher and teacher with a real heart for revival and renewal in the Church today. He is married to Cathy and they have four boys. He has recently completed his MA in Catholic Applied Theology.
