The Word on Fire

*"The word of God is something alive and active."
Hebrews 4:12*

The Word on Fire is an opportunity to encounter the living God through sacred Scripture, and be inspired, informed and encouraged. During this weekend we will be exploring the power of the word of God to transform us and the world in which we live. This conference provides a great means during Lent to prepare for Easter. Sessions will draw on the wealth of Church teaching and include:

- Setting fire to the heart: Mary in the Bible.
- Setting fire to the world: the power of the Bible to transform the world.
- Setting fire to the Church: An exploration of the Book of Acts, Part I
- Carrying the flame: An exploration of the Book of Acts, Part II
- The weekend will include: praise and worship, ministry in the power of the Holy Spirit, Holy Mass, times of prayer and Adoration.

"The Holy Spirit was tangibly present throughout in power and inspired words of prophecy and teaching,"

"The Ministry time and the worship were excellent"

"It was an amazing experience..I felt God touched my life in a special way"

"The Conference was well organised with good materials. It was my first time at an event in Highfield House; I really enjoyed it. Thank-you!"

The Conference is uplifting, inspiring and encouraging."

David Beresford, along with his wife Sarah, took over the Directorship of the Catholic Bible School in 2014. David has been active in Christian Ministry with adults, young people, children, families, schools and parishes for over 25 years. An experienced speaker, preacher, retreat leader, youth and children's worker, David has a Masters in Biblical Studies from Heythrop College.

Matt van Duyvenbode has worked for the Bible Society since 2010. Matt is currently their Director of National Programme and Research and is responsible for leading the Society's academic and sociological research programme and directing their engagement in public life. Matt graduated from Durham University with a degree in theology and prior to working for the Bible Society was a youth worker for Northampton Diocese.

Duncan Mitchell has been a member of the Cor et Lumen Christi Community for over 15 years. After graduating with a degree in Law, Duncan qualified as a social worker and for a number of years specialised in work with drug and alcohol users. He has an MA in Biblical Studies and is the author of the Bible Courses. Duncan is a gifted speaker and speaks regularly at Community-led events.
