

The Catholic Fraternity

of Charismatic Covenant Communities and Fellowships

Postal Address: Palazzo San Calisto, 16 – 00120 Città del Vaticano

Offices: Piazza San Calisto, 16 - 00153 Roma

Phones: (+39) 06 698 87342 - 06 898 87120 - Fax: (+39) 06 698 87190

E-mail: president@catholicfraternity.net

Web: www.catholicfraternity.net

DECLARATION

The Catholic Fraternity of Charismatic Covenant Communities and Fellowships hereby declares that

COR ET LUMEN CHRISTI COMMUNITY

Whose Founder is

DAMIAN STAYNE

(St John's Way, Chertsey, Surrey KT16 8BZ UK)

is an Member of the Catholic Fraternity of Charismatic Covenant Communities and Fellowships, recognized by the Holy See on November 30th, 1990 (prot. No. 1585/90/S-61/B-50), as Private Association of Christian Faithful of Pontifical Right.

From Palazzo San Calisto

Vatican City, December 8th 2010

Yours sincerely,

Matteo Calisi
PROF. MATTEO CALISI
President

St Joseph's Hall, Greyfriars Lane, Storrington, West Sussex RH20 4HE

Tel: 01903 742172

Fax: 01903 746336

E-mail: Bishop@dabnet.org

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Damian Stayne/The Community *Cor et Lumen Christi

The lay community Cor et Lumen Christi has been functioning within the diocese of Arundel & Brighton since 1995, after their foundation in the Archdiocese of Southwark.

It is well known to me as it was to my predecessor, now Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor. I have visited the community at Highfield House, Chertsey and celebrated the Eucharist with them.

They are a prayerful, devout and loyal community who carry out an apostolate of prayer, community life and witness.

Their founder, Damian Stayne, is in good standing within the diocese and I would appreciate whatever kind reception you would offer him.

With all good wishes,

Rt Rev Kieran Conry
Bishop of Arundel & Brighton

1 June 2005